January 7, 2026.

Dear Registered Public Accountant,

Fee for Annual Practising Certificate for 2026.

The fee for the year 2026 is Sixty-Nine Thousand Dollars ($69,000). This fee is now due and should be remitted to the Public Accountancy Board (PAB) as soon as possible.

Please note the provisions of Section 14 A (1) and (2) of the Public Accountancy Act which read as follows:

- (1) A person registered under the Act shall not practise as a public accountant except by virtue of and in accordance with a Practising Certificate which shall be issued by the Board in the prescribed form on payment to the Board of the prescribed annual fee;
- (2) A person who practises in contravention of subsection (1) shall be incapable of maintaining any action for recovery of any fee or reward on account of, or in relation to, any act done by him in the course of such practice.

Please complete and return, with your remittance, the attached documents:

- (a) Form for Renewal of a Practising Certificate for 2026
- (b) 2026 Questionnaire for Risk Based Approach (required for Financial Action Task Force (FATF) purposes).

The Practising Certificate will not be issued unless both the Form and the Questionnaire are received by the PAB.

As an alternative to paying your fees by cheque, you may pay your fees by direct deposit to the account of the Public Accountancy Board, as follows:

Bank name: Bank of Nova Scotia
Branch: Scotiabank Centre
Location: Duke and Port Royal Streets
Account Name: Public Accountancy Board
Account Number: 000803227
Transit Number: 50765

If you make a direct deposit, please send me via email (crodney@pab.gov.jm) a copy of the deposit slip.

If you wish to pay by cash, please call me at 876 534 2368 in order that special arrangements can be made to receive the cash.

No cash payments can be made at the Ministry of Finance and the Public Service.

Best wishes for a successful 2026.

Yours sincerely,

C.N. Rodney
